My dear Sir,

I submitted to H.H. The Yuvaraja your confidential letter of the 5th inst. and am directed to ~~~~ ask you for the trouble taken to ~~sent you a note~~ speak to Mr. V. in regard to certain offending articles that appeared in his papers, Sampatha-Abhyudaya and the Mysore Patriot.

The pseudonymous letters in which ~~His~~ Highness The Yuvaraja's name was gratuitously made use of were published in the issues of the Sampatha Abhyudaya
dated 10th, 11th, 12th and 17th June 18 and in the issue of the Mysore Patriot of

the 11th June and I am sending them
herewith for your kind perusal and obtaining return.

I may appear on the surface to be un-
objectionable as they purport to defend and support the Government's supposed attitude in regard to the matter.
But this Hon'ble feels that he has a right to take a strong exception to the publication of such articles or letter which tend whatever the intentions of the writers may be — undoubtedly tend to create a suspicion in the minds of the public that he is taking sides with Messrs Reddy & Basavial.

The very words of the heading of the article

The letters may appear
objectionable as they purport to defend the Government's supposed attitude in
regard to the matter,
but such communication whatever the intentions of the writers may be — have a tendency to leave a false impression in the minds of the Public.

in the Patriot (H.H. the Yuvaraja and the Reddy — Basavaraja ernaade) will make the situation clear.

His Highness however thinks it sufficient to ask the editor to publish in both the papers an apology for having inserted letters containing such misleading and offending references to himself and will be much obliged if you will kindly send for his approval a draft of an apology.

Yours sincerely.
